Present Condition: good

Overall Dimensions: 28'x 30'; 1 story Orientation : north Architectural Plan type : rectangular Description : Foundation: stone/concrete perimeter walls Structure : wood frame
Ext. walls: wide exposure masonite siding with metal corner trim Roof: asphalt shingled catslide roof with break in pitch over front porch; shed roof over rear addition Dormers: none Windows: 2/2 double-hung with plain board enframements, single or paired; large fixed picture window flanked by 2/2 double-hung on north facade under porch Porches: full-width porch (presently enclosed on west half) on north, featuring simple square columns and balustrade (not original)
Details: plain board horizontal and raking cornices

Construction Date : pre-1910 Architecture Style: original: Vernacular Saddlebag House present : Basic Box Statement of Significance: Originally a double-cell saddlebag house, this small frame building has undergone a series of subsequent alterations and additions which have changed its appearance significantly. On the western edge of the East End (Hampton Wedge) neighborhood, it shares the scale and simple detailing with most of the other houses in the area: modest vernacular structures occupied primarily by black laborers and their families.
